Re: Interiano v. Arch Specialty Insurance Co., Case No. 23-cv-0238-PKC-AYS

Dear Judge Shields:

Our firm represents Defendant Arch Specialty Insurance Co. ("Arch") in the above-referenced matter. We respectfully write to seek clarification with respect to Your Honor's February 18, 2025 Order (the "Order"), issued after the Scheduling Conference held that same day.

The Order denied Arch's pending motion to modify the subpoena Plaintiff served on Armour (the "Motion to Modify"). But although Your Honor noted that the Court was prepared to rule on Plaintiff's motion to compel production of Arch's contract with Armour, there was no discussion regarding the Motion to Modify. Rather, our understanding from the Scheduling Conference was that we and Plaintiff's counsel were to further meet and confer on whether Plaintiff was continuing to seek the production of documents from Armour after Arch produced a copy of its contract with Armour.

To avoid any confusion, we respectfully request the Court's clarification as to whether: (1) Arch's Motion to Modify remains pending, subject to further meet and confer efforts, which the parties will report on in their March 18 joint status letter; or (2) Arch's Motion to Modify has been denied without prejudice to renew after further meet and confer efforts between the parties.

We thank the Court for its attention to these matters.

Respectfully submitted,

Aaron F. Mandel
